Distribution of Award

The Board of Directors will review and assess scholarship applications at the August Board Meeting.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the recipient after the Credit Union receives verification of completion of at least one semester for the 2022/2023 school year. The funds may be used for tuition, room and board, books or materials.

Application/Essay Instructions

Please read the questions carefully before submitting your essay.

1. Please list your community and/or school activities.
2. Employment history, if applicable.
3. What are your education/career/life goals?
4. What would you say differentiates you from other applicants or why should you be awarded the scholarship?
5. What impact will the financial decisions you make today have on the rest of your life? Provide specific examples. How can Southeastern Ohio Credit Union help you with these decisions?
